

LEARNING IN JUNIOR VISUAL ARTS

My teacher is responsible for:

- Setting art assignments that are challenging but achievable for me
  - Supplying me with good equipment and materials to do my art
  - Helping me to understand what I need to do and improve my work
  - Encouraging and motivating me
  - Marking my work and giving me feedback so that I know what I am good at, and what I need to do to improve
  - Setting clear boundaries and consequences for my behaviour, good and bad

I am responsible for:

Thinking

- Make artworks that show I understand the skills that the teacher has taught me
- Use suggestions and ideas from the teacher and other students to improve my art

Managing myself

- Know that I am always capable of learning and have an 'I can do this' attitude
- Be a self-motivated learner, work without the teacher having to remind me
- Manage my art assignments by working well in class and meeting deadlines
- Set high work standards for myself, always work to the best of my ability
- Act in a reliable way, be trustworthy and set a good standard for my behaviour

Relating to others

- Interact positively and politely with other students and the teacher
- Be aware of my own words and actions and how they affect others
- Listen and cooperate with my teacher's instructions
- Be open and willing to learn new skills, even when tasks seem hard to begin with
- Cooperate positively and politely with relief teachers in the art room

Participating and contributing

- Contribute positively to my learning environment, learn and help others learn
  - Contribute to the quality of my classroom environment by keeping equipment, tables and sinks clean, putting rubbish in the bin, caring for my own and other students artwork, and reporting damage to the teacher

What else do I need from my teacher to help me learn?

What else could I be responsible for to help my learning?
