

STREET ART

TASKS FOR WEDNESDAY 29TH APRIL AND 6TH MARCH

WELCOME TO THE NEXT 2 WEEKS STREET ART LESSONS!

TODAY WE ARE LOOKING AT THE WORK OF AN ARTIST CALLED JOHN BURGERMAN.

BEFORE WE BEGIN HAVE A LOOK AT THIS PRESENTATION JOHN BURGER GAVE ON HIS WORK.

TASK ONE

Find objects around your home or neighbourhood to add eyes, arms, ears etc to like John Burgerman. You can either take a photo of the object and add the eyes on digitally or you can draw the eyes etc and stick them on and then take the photo.

Please post your photos on google classroom. (Where it says share something with your class, click on it and it will pop down and give you an attachment paperclip symbol. You can attach your image there, but you have to add your name or write something into the share something with your class part of the post for it to work.

TASK 2

The Next task will be to create a set of characters to work with. Keep it 'Low Fi' simple little doodles with not too much detail.

This is John Burgerman's example.

You could do your family or your friends or just make up some characters.

When you have completed this task please take a photo and email it me.

TASK 3

Have a rummage around in your recycling bin and find a nice flat piece of cardboard to work with.
Tip: If it already has stuff printed on it the better!!

Using your characters create a John Burgerman style artwork like this one:

THINGS THAT YOU CAN ADD INTO YOUR DRAWING ARE:

WHAT YOU DID THAT DAY

WHO YOU SAW

OBJECTS IN YOUR ROOM/HOUSE/STREET

WHAT YOU HAD FOR DINNER/BREAKFAST

WHAT YOU SAW ON TV

ICONS FROM GAMES YOU ARE PLAYING

STUFF YOU HEAR ON THE RADIO

POLITICS/NEWS ETC.....ANYTHING AND EVERYTHING!!!!
