APPS

Art Games 2.0

The ArtGames app features seven unique video games based on seven artworks in the Albright-Knox's collection.

Drawing with Carl!: It is a nice drawing app with a lot of drawing tools for kids to explore different effects. The mirror effect is a unique feature for kids to learn about symmetry design.

Drawp: Drawing app with many drawing tools for kids to explore different art effects. Kids also receive drawing prompts for drawing ideas.

Drawnimal: Drawing app of challenge in a fun way. Kids see part of drawing on iPad, and put the iPad on paper, they have to complete the whole picture utilizing the part already on iPad. Great for imagination.

Drawing for Kids: Another app with step-by-step guide of drawing over 30 objects kids love. All objects are something kids actually see in their everyday life, such as cars, houses, balls, birds.

Eye Paint: This app provides a unique way for kids to learn coloring and pattern. Kids can isolate parts of the painting and take the colors and patterns around them in real life to fill the part. It gives a completely new perspective on drawings and pictures.

iLuv Drawing Dinosaurs: Step-by-step guide of drawing 19 different dinosaurs. Kids learn drawing as well as fun dinosaur facts. In the series, there are also iLuv Drawing People, iLuv Drawing Animals, iLuv Drawing Monsters, iLuv Drawing Vehicles. For all the drawing apps in the series, you can visit the developer page.

Mini Monet: Drawing app for kids with classy taste, Mini Monet has different challenges for kids. For example, kids will see half of the drawing and they are to finish the other half. The option of choosing a ruled background is very helpful for kids to learn to draw in the right proportion.

NGA Kids App

The NGAkids Art Zone app contains eight interactive activities inspired by works in the collection of the National Gallery of Art, plus a sketchbook for freehand drawing and a personal exhibition space where users can save and display art created with the program.

Night Zoo Keeper Teleporting Torch: Fun app letting parents connect with kids via drawing projects. The app has a system set up so parents can send kids drawing challenges based on kids' skill level.

PicoToons: A drawing app for school age kids. In addition to many drawing tools for kids to try out different art effects, all features are more fine-tuned, such coloring in a smaller area, overlay text on top of pictures with different font options.

SketchBook: A more sophisticated drawing app for those who want to explore more advanced art effects like water color, animation. You can even create the art with layers for easy editing.

Squiggles: Drawing app for the youngest kids who just start to learn drawing different lines. It turns kids' squiggles into meaningful drawings, like clouds bringing rains, nests for the birds. A great tools for the little ones to practice drawing lines that will in turn to spark their imagination.

Storyboard That: A free website that works well on iPad, it is a great tool for kids to learn to communicate with drawings. There are many pre-made picture units for kids to use to create a series of pictures to tell a story.
